CENTRAL BOARD OF EXCISE AND CUSTOMS*CUSTOMSNew Delhi, the 21st August 1965*

G.S.R. 1221.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 157 read with section 56 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short title.—These regulations may be called the Transportation of Goods (Through Foreign Territory) Regulations, 1965.

2. Application.—These regulations shall apply to goods, whether imported or indigenous which are to be transported from one part of India to another through a route which lies partly over the territory of a foreign country.

3. Consignor to deliver a bill.—(a) Whenever any goods to which these regulations apply are to be transported, the consignor of the goods shall make an entry to that effect by presenting to the proper officer a bill (in duplicate) in the Form specified in Appendix-A to these regulations.

(b) Every such consignor shall, while presenting the bill, make and subscribe to a declaration at the foot thereof as to the truth of its contents.

4. Permission to load goods, etc.—No person-in-charge of a vessel shall permit the loading of such goods on a conveyance unless—

(a) the bill relating to them after approval by, and

(b) a written permission to load the goods from, the proper officer are received by him.

5. Execution of bond.—Before any such goods are permitted to be loaded on the conveyance, the consignor or the person-in-charge of the vessel shall be required to execute a bond in such form and with such surety or sufficient security as the proper officer may demand, binding himself in an amount not exceeding the value of the goods.

6. Duties of the person-in-charge of the conveyance.—(1) On receipt of the documents referred to in regulation 4, the person-in-charge of the conveyance shall prepare as many sets of manifest (in triplicate) in the Form specified in Appendix-B to these regulations in respect of such goods as there are customs stations to be passed through on the route.

He shall, immediately on arrival at any customs station of delivery or re-entry, deliver a set of the manifest along with the bill or bills relating to the goods to the proper officer at the customs station.

(2) The proper officer shall, after making the necessary check, make an endorsement on the manifest, retain one copy of the manifest and return the other two copies to the person-in-charge of the conveyance.

(3) The person-in-charge of the conveyance shall retain one of the two copies for carrier's record and present the other to the proper officer at the loading station.

(4) The person-in-charge of the conveyance carrying such goods shall not leave the customs station until a written permission has been given by the proper officer after checking the manifest presented to him under this regulation.

7. Delivery of bills at the destination station.—The person in charge of the conveyance shall, carry with him on the journey all the bills relating to the goods delivered to him and shall immediately on arrival at any customs station deliver to the proper officer such of the bills as relate to the goods unloaded at that station.

8. Clearance of goods.—Such goods, after being unloaded at any customs station, shall not be cleared unless the proper officer gives a written permission that all the goods so unloaded are entered in the bill or bills delivered to him under these Regulations.

9. Terms of the Bond.—The condition of the bond to be executed under regulation 5 shall be that if the person-in-charge of the conveyance or the consignor produces proof within a time stipulated in the bond or such extended time as the proper officer may permit that the goods have been produced before the proper officer at destination the bond shall be void; and if such proof be not furnished the executor of the instrument shall be liable to pay an amount equal to the export duty leviable on the goods and such penalty as may be adjudged or imposed by the proper officer under the Customs Act, 1962, the Imports and Exports (Control) Act, 1947 (18 of 1947), or the foreign Exchange Regulations Act, 1947 (7 of 1947).

10. Execution of General Bond.—Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, the proper officer may permit the person-in-charge of the conveyances or the consignor of goods to enter into a general bond in such form and with such surety or security as the proper officer may deem fit, in respect of transport of goods as above said to be effected from time to time.

APPENDIX-A

MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

(Directorate General of Employment and Training)

New Delhi, the 18th August 1965

G.S.R. 1242.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 37 of the Apprentices Act, 1961, (52 of 1961) and after consultation with the Central Apprenticeship Council, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Apprenticeship Rules, 1962, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Apprenticeship (Amendment) Rules, 1965.

2. In the Apprenticeship Rules, 1962 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules) in rule 4, the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Provided that a person who has undergone institutional training in a school or other institution recognised by the National Council and has passed trade tests conducted by that Council, shall, if he has already undergone medical examination in accordance with the minimum standards aforesaid at the time of admission to the school or institution, be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this rule”.

3. In the said rules, for rule 9, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

9. Grant of leave to apprentices:—

(1) In establishments where proper leave rules do not exist or the total leave of different types admissible to their workers is less than thirty seven days in a year, the apprentices shall be entitled to the following kinds of leave and subject to the conditions specified under each kind of leave,

(a) Casual leave—

- (i) Casual leave shall be admissible for a maximum period of twelve days in a year.
- (ii) Any holidays intervening during the period of casual leave shall not be counted for the purpose of the limit of twelve days.
- (iii) Casual leave not utilised during any year shall stand lapsed at the end of the year.
- (iv) Casual leave shall not be combined with medical leave. If casual leave is preceded or followed by medical leave, the entire leave taken shall be treated either as medical or casual leave, provided that it shall not be allowed to exceed the maximum period prescribed in respect of medical or casual leave, as the case may be.
- (v) Except in case of extreme urgency applications for such leave, shall be made to the appropriate authority and sanction obtained prior to the availing of leave.

(b) Medical leave—

- (i) Medical leave upto fifteen days for each year of training may be granted to the apprentice who is unable to attend duty owing to illness. The unused leave shall be allowed to accumulate upto a maximum of forty days.
- (ii) Any holidays intervening during the period of medical leave shall be treated as medical leave and accounted for in the limits prescribed under clause (i).
- (iii) The employer may call upon the apprentice to produce a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner in support of his medical leave. A medical certificate shall, however, be necessary, if the leave exceeds six days.
- (iv) It shall be open to the employer to arrange a Special medical examination of an apprentice if he has reason to believe that the apprentice is not really ill or the illness is not of such a nature as to prevent his attendance.

(c) Extraordinary leave—

Extraordinary leave upto a maximum of ten days in a year may be granted to the apprentice, after he has exhausted the entire casual and medical leave, if the employer is satisfied with the grounds on which the leave is applied for.

- (2) In establishments where proper leave rules exist for the workers, the leave to apprentices shall be granted by the employers in accordance with these rules, subject to the condition that every apprentice shall put in a minimum attendance of 264 days in a year on training, one sixth out of which, viz. 44 days, shall be devoted to related instruction and 220 days to practical training.
- (3) Any apprentice who for any reason is not able to undergo training for the period specified in sub-rule (2), shall be given an opportunity to make up for the shortfall in the following year; provided, however, that if an apprentice who is undergoing apprenticeship training for three years and is not able to attend a total of 132 days for related instructions and 660 days for practical training in the three years, shall not be considered as having completed the full period of training and employer may under sub-rule (2) of rule 5 of the Apprenticeship Rules, 1962, extend his period of training. For other trades where the period of training is for four years, the number of days for related instruction shall be 176 days and for practical training 880 days".

G.S.R. 1243.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to amend the Central Training Institutes for Instructors (Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1965, published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour and Employment (Directorate General of Employment and Training) No. G.S.R. 487 dated the 27th March, 1965 namely:—

1. These Rules may be called the Central Training Institutes for Instructors (Class IV posts) Recruitment Amendment Rules, 1965.
2. In the Schedule to the Central Training Institutes for Instructors (Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1965:—

against serial No. 1.—Workshop Attendant in column 7. for the existing entries the following entries shall be substituted, namely:

“Studied upto Middle Class Standard (Appeared for Middle School Examination but not passed) or equivalent qualification.

Preference would be given to persons possessing experience in industry for at least one year.”
